MONTCLAIR EDUCATION ASSOCIATION
CARAVAN ROUTE – June 5, 2020
GUIDELINES

1. Plan on arriving by 4:15 p.m.; cars should park on College Avenue facing south; we plan on starting the Caravan registration at 4:30 p.m. College Avenue is located to the first street west of Bradford School;

2. While waiting to start, turn off car engines: no idling;

3. Print signs at home, if possible; the MEA will have some paper, markers, and tape available at Bradford; if you need to exit your car to pick up a sign/tape, please practice social distancing (6 feet, wear mask, gloves);

   Example signs are below or feel free to list one of the many people that lost their life due to police brutality:

   - No one is free when others are oppressed.
   - This educator believes that Black Lives Matter!
   - Black Lives Matter at school and everywhere!
   - Racism is a pandemic!
   - We're not trying to start a race war, we're trying to END one!
   - Racism is so American that when you protest it, people think you are protesting America.
   - I can't breathe!
   - Say Their Names!

4. Lights and hazards must be on when driving on the Caravan;

5. ALL traffic rules must be obeyed, including full stop signs, traffic lights, and speed limits; don't worry about being separated; WE WILL ALL END UP AT NISHUANE!

6. At Nishuane Park at 6:00 pm, MEA President Petal Robertson will deliver remarks at the Coretta Scott King and Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial, and then we will join her in silence; we will practice social distancing.
